

RECOGNITION of CREDITS

based on JAPANESE LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY TEST

Only for G30 students <FALL-AY2016>

Important Notes

- *The maximum number of credits that can be awarded based on proficiency test results is six for English and Japanese combined.
- *Awarded credits under this system shall be included in the maximum of 60 other university credits that may be recognized by Nagoya University.
- *Additionally, those who wish to apply this program should meet either one of the following requirements:
 1. Those who have already earned the N1, N2 or N3 of JLPT before entering Nagoya University.
 2. Those who got certified as the person to have an ability of N2 or more for JLPT at the result of the Placement Test. Furthermore, took and passed a test of JLPT in December of the same year.
- *About necessary credits of Japanese language for completion, please consult the Japanese course instructor.

The number of Credits Recognized

Types of proficiency test	3 credits	6 credits
Japanese Language Proficiency Test	Level N3	Level N1, Level N2

Applying

Application Period: 8:30-17:00, January 16th to January 20th, 2017

Submit to: Office of the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Documents to submit:

1. Application form

The application form is distributed at the office of the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences from January 11th, 2017.

2. Original “Japanese-Language Proficiency Test Certificate of Result and Scores”

Copies are not acceptable.

The office will return the certificate following the application process.

+ Please show your NU Student ID when applying.

+Application procedure must be completed by the student who wishes to have credits recognized.

Results

Awarded credits can be checked on your NU portal site after February 20th, 2017 as one of the same semester application made.

The grade will be either pass or fail and not be reflected in the GPA.

Office of the Institute of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Open from Monday to Friday, 8:30-17:00

Excluding holidays